

ASHISH RUPAKHETI

Front-End Developer & Graphics Designer

PROFILE

I'm a FRONT-END developer and GRAPHICS DESIGNER residing in Nepal. I live in a world of infinite possibilities, preferring to see things not as they are but as they could be. I have a serious passion for UI designing, graphics designing and creating Responsive and Interactive Websites

A very well organised person, problem solver and independent guy with high attention to details. Person with a keen interest in bringing change to society through designs.
